How to File Your Appeal

1. Call the Sebastian County Assessor's Office at (479) 783-8948 to request a property tax appeal form and confirm the current deadline for filing appeals.
2. Collect evidence to support your appeal including recent comparable sales in your area, photographs of property condition as of January 1, recent appraisals, and any documentation showing your property is overassessed or not equalized with similar properties.
3. Fill out the property tax appeal form obtained from the Assessor's Office, providing your current assessment, your proposed valuation, and a detailed explanation of why you believe your property is overassessed.
4. File your completed appeal form with supporting documentation to the Sebastian County Board of Equalization by letter or petition to the secretary on or before the third Monday in August, which is August 18, 2026.

5. If the Board schedules a hearing for your appeal, attend and present your evidence including comparable property values, photographs, and any expert opinions to support your lower valuation.
6. Wait for the County Board of Equalization's written decision on your appeal, which will either grant an adjustment to your assessment or deny your request.
7. If unsatisfied with the Board's decision, file an appeal to the Sebastian County Court by the second Monday in October, which is October 12, 2026.
8. If the County Court denies your appeal and no further administrative appeals are available, consult with an attorney about appealing to state court.

If You're Called to a Hearing

Bring your Evidence Packet. You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Keep it simple and focus on the comparable sales:

> "Thank you for hearing my appeal. My property at 2000 Wirsing Ave is currently appraised by the county at $89,885, resulting in a taxable assessed value of $17,977 at AR's 20% assessment ratio. However, I've gathered 9 recent sales of similar homes in the area. The 25th percentile price per square foot of these comparable properties is $82. Applied to my home's 868 square feet, this supports a market value of approximately $71,185. I've included addresses, sale prices, and details for each comparable in my evidence packet. I respectfully request the Board adjust my assessment to reflect actual market conditions."

Tips: Be polite and factual. Focus only on whether your property's value is correct compared to similar homes that recently sold.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
