How to File Your Appeal

1. Go to MyTax.DC.gov and submit your First Level Administrative Review Application for property tax appeal online before the April 1, 2026 deadline. If April 1 falls on a weekend, the deadline is the next business day. New property owners must file within 45 days of receiving their assessment.

2. Call the assessor listed on your assessment notice to discuss the basis of your property valuation before filing your appeal. If the assessor's phone number is not on your notice, call the Office of Tax and Revenue Customer Service Center at (202) 727-4829.

3. Compile meaningful evidence for your appeal including recent property appraisals, comparable sales data, photos of property conditions, settlement statements, and documentation of any property damage that affects value.

4. Participate in your first-level appeal hearing with the Office of Tax and Revenue, which can be conducted in-person, by telephone, or in writing. Present your evidence and explain why the assessment should be reduced.

5. If your first-level appeal is denied, file a second-level appeal with the Real Property Tax Appeals Commission within 45 days of receiving your administrative appeal decision notice. Submit the appeal form through MyTax.DC.gov or contact RPTAC directly at (202) 727-6860.

6. Complete the Real Property Assessments Appeal Form, indicating your Square and Lot numbers on all documentation. Upload all supporting evidence when filing electronically at www.fileandservexpress.com. Choose whether you want an in-person hearing, telephone hearing, or non-appearance review.

7. If unsatisfied with the RPTAC decision, file an appeal with the DC Superior Court by September 30 of the tax year or within 6 months after the RPTAC decision, whichever is later.

If You're Called to a Hearing

Bring your Evidence Packet. You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Keep it simple and focus on the comparable sales:

> "Thank you for hearing my appeal. My property at 112 Webster St NE is currently appraised by the county at $604,040. However, I've gathered 4 recent sales of similar homes in the area. The 25th percentile price per square foot of these comparable properties is $432. Applied to my home's 1,152 square feet, this supports a market value of approximately $497,219. I've included addresses, sale prices, and details for each comparable in my evidence packet. I respectfully request the Board adjust my assessment to reflect actual market conditions."

Tips: Be polite and factual. Focus only on whether your property's value is correct compared to similar homes that recently sold.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
