How to File Your Appeal

1. Call the Johnson County Assessor's Office at (317) 346-4701 to request a copy of your current assessment notice and appeal forms. The office is located at 86 W Court St, Franklin, IN 46131 and is open Monday through Friday 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.

2. Carefully review your property assessment notice to identify the assessed value, property description, and any errors in property characteristics such as square footage, number of rooms, or property improvements that may be inaccurately recorded.

3. File a Form 130 appeal for objective issues such as incorrect property descriptions or factual errors on your property record card. The assessor will schedule an informal conference to review your appeal and make a recommendation.

4. Participate in an informal conference with the local assessing official where you present evidence supporting your appeal. Bring comparable property sales, photos of property condition, or documentation of errors in the assessment.

5. After the informal conference, the assessor will make a recommendation either denying or approving your appeal. If denied, your appeal will be forwarded to the county Property Tax Assessment Board of Appeals (PTABOA) for review.

6. If your initial appeal is denied, your case automatically goes to the county Property Tax Assessment Board of Appeals (PTABOA) for review. You will receive notification of your hearing date and should prepare additional evidence to present.

7. If the PTABOA denies your appeal, you will receive instructions on appealing the decision to the Indiana Board of Tax Review. After the Indiana Board of Tax Review, taxpayers may also seek review by the Indiana Tax Court.

If You're Called to a Hearing

Bring your Evidence Packet. You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Keep it simple and focus on the comparable sales:

> "Thank you for hearing my appeal. My property at 836 Grant Ct is currently appraised by the county at $246,700. However, I've gathered 3 recent sales of similar homes in the area. The 25th percentile price per square foot of these comparable properties is $171. Applied to my home's 1,329 square feet, this supports a market value of approximately $227,817. I've included addresses, sale prices, and details for each comparable in my evidence packet. I respectfully request the Board adjust my assessment to reflect actual market conditions."

Tips: Be polite and factual. Focus only on whether your property's value is correct compared to similar homes that recently sold.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
