3. Attend your scheduled hearing with the SDAT supervisor to present your evidence, bringing four copies of all documentation (three for the board, one for the assessor), and be prepared to explain why your property's assessed value should be reduced.

4. If dissatisfied with SDAT's decision, file an appeal to the Property Tax Assessment Appeal Board within 30 days of the SDAT decision by mailing your appeal to P.O. Box 2700, 44 Calvert Street, Room 163, Annapolis, MD 21404-2700.
5. If presenting a professional appraisal at the PTAAB hearing, provide a copy to the assessment office at least 10 days before your scheduled hearing date, ensuring the appraisal reflects your property's value as of January 1st of the tax year being appealed.
6. If the PTAAB decision is unsatisfactory, file an appeal to the Maryland Tax Court within 30 days of the PTAAB order, which requires your personal attendance at the hearing and involves a more formal proceeding.

If You're Called to a Hearing

Bring your Evidence Packet. You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Keep it simple and focus on the comparable sales:

> "Thank you for hearing my appeal. My property at 1114 Jasper Ct is currently appraised by the county at $642,100. However, I've gathered 5 recent sales of similar homes in the area. The 25th percentile price per square foot of these comparable properties is $233. Applied to my home's 2,438 square feet, this supports a market value of approximately $568,298. I've included addresses, sale prices, and details for each comparable in my evidence packet. I respectfully request the Board adjust my assessment to reflect actual market conditions."

Tips: Be polite and factual. Focus only on whether your property's value is correct compared to similar homes that recently sold.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
