How to File Your Appeal

1. Call the Tulsa County Assessor's Office at (918) 596-5100 to request Form 974 (Notice of Informal Protest of Valuation) or visit their office at 218 W. 6th St., 5th Floor, Tulsa, OK 74119.
2. Complete and submit Form 974 (Notice of Informal Protest of Valuation) within 30 days of receiving your Notice of Increase in Valuation, or by the first Monday in April if no value change occurred.
3. Collect evidence to support your appeal including recent appraisals, comparable property sales, photos of property defects, and any documentation showing your property is overvalued.
4. Participate in the informal hearing scheduled by the Assessor's Office, which can be conducted in person at their office or by phone, to present your case for lower valuation.

5. The Assessor must issue a written decision within 7 calendar days of your informal hearing, which will be sent to you by regular mail or electronic mail.
6. If you disagree with the Assessor's decision, file Form 976 (Formal Appeal to County Board of Equalization) with the County Clerk within 15 calendar days of the mailed decision date.
7. Appear at the County Board of Equalization hearing on the scheduled date to present your evidence, either in person, by telephone, or other electronic means.
8. If unsuccessful at the Board level, file an appeal with the Tulsa County District Court within 30 days of the Board's decision for judicial review of your property valuation.

If You're Called to a Hearing

Bring your Evidence Packet. You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Keep it simple and focus on the comparable sales:

> "Thank you for hearing my appeal. My property at 8257 N 128th E Ave is currently appraised by the county at $244,200, resulting in a taxable assessed value of $26,862 at OK's 11% assessment ratio. However, I've gathered 3 recent sales of similar homes in the area. The 25th percentile price per square foot of these comparable properties is $102. Applied to my home's 1,784 square feet, this supports a market value of approximately $181,183. I've included addresses, sale prices, and details for each comparable in my evidence packet. I respectfully request the Board adjust my assessment to reflect actual market conditions."

Tips: Be polite and factual. Focus only on whether your property's value is correct compared to similar homes that recently sold.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
