How to File Your Appeal

1. Call the Hamilton County Assessor of Property at (423) 209-7300 to request an appeal form before filing your formal appeal with the Board of Equalization.
2. Ask to speak with an appraiser at (423) 209-7300 who will review your property information with you and conduct an informal review before the formal appeal process.
3. Collect evidence to support your appeal including sales prices of similar properties within the last three years, photos of property condition issues, and any professional appraisals you have obtained.
4. Fill out the formal appeal form obtained from the Assessor's office with all required information about your property and the basis for your complaint as required by T.C.A. § 67-5-1407.

5. File your completed appeal form with supporting evidence to the Hamilton County Board of Equalization before the deadline, which is typically announced in early spring and falls in early June.
6. Present your case at the scheduled Board of Equalization hearing with all supporting documentation and be prepared to answer questions from the five board members.
7. Receive the Board of Equalization's written decision regarding your appeal, which will determine whether your property assessment is adjusted or remains unchanged.
8. If unsatisfied with the County Board decision, file an appeal with the Tennessee State Board of Equalization within the required timeframe for further review.

If You're Called to a Hearing

Bring your Evidence Packet. You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Keep it simple and focus on the comparable sales:

> "Thank you for hearing my appeal. My property at 3206 Wood Ave is currently appraised by the county at $189,400, resulting in a taxable assessed value of $47,350 at TN's 25% assessment ratio. However, I've gathered 4 recent sales of similar homes in the area. The 25th percentile price per square foot of these comparable properties is $105. Applied to my home's 1,096 square feet, this supports a market value of approximately $114,564. I've included addresses, sale prices, and details for each comparable in my evidence packet. I respectfully request the Board adjust my assessment to reflect actual market conditions."

Tips: Be polite and factual. Focus only on whether your property's value is correct compared to similar homes that recently sold.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
