How to File Your Appeal

1. Call the Otoe County Assessor's office at (402) 873-9520 to discuss your property valuation, review how your value was determined, and request correction of possible errors before filing a formal protest.
2. Request Form 422 (Property Valuation Protest) from the Otoe County Clerk's office at (402) 873-9505 or download it from the Nebraska Department of Revenue website.

3. Fill out the protest form including your property's legal description, current assessed values for land and buildings, your requested valuation, and detailed reasons for the appeal with supporting documentation such as recent appraisals or comparable property values.
4. Submit your completed Form 422 to the Otoe County Clerk at 1021 Central Avenue, Nebraska City, NE 68410 between June 1 and June 30, 2026, along with any supporting evidence that will be presented at the hearing.
5. Attend the County Board of Equalization hearing at the date and time specified in the notice you receive from the County Clerk, where you can present evidence and witnesses supporting your requested valuation.
6. Wait for the County Board of Equalization's decision, which must be issued on or before August 2, 2026, and will be mailed to you by the County Clerk within seven days of the final decision.
7. If unsatisfied with the County Board's decision, file an appeal with the Tax Equalization and Review Commission on or before August 24, 2026, including a copy of the County Board's decision and the required filing fee.

If You're Called to a Hearing

Bring your Evidence Packet. You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Keep it simple and focus on the comparable sales:

> "Thank you for hearing my appeal. My property at 1599 Ash St is currently appraised by the county at $386,000. However, I've gathered 4 recent sales of similar homes in the area. The 25th percentile price per square foot of these comparable properties is $109. Applied to my home's 2,970 square feet, this supports a market value of approximately $322,713. I've included addresses, sale prices, and details for each comparable in my evidence packet. I respectfully request the Board adjust my assessment to reflect actual market conditions."

Tips: Be polite and factual. Focus only on whether your property's value is correct compared to similar homes that recently sold.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
