APPEAL NOT RECOMMENDED

Your county has appraised your property at $226,000. In SD, residential properties are assessed at 85% of appraised value for tax purposes, resulting in a taxable assessed value of $202,870. Your annual property tax of $2,226.66 reflects an effective tax rate of 0.99%. Without comparable sales data available for your specific property, we cannot determine whether the county's valuation is above or below market value. We do not see sufficient evidence to support a formal appeal at this time. We recommend reviewing your annual assessment notice when it arrives and comparing it to recent sales of similar homes in your area. Note: 2 environmental factors were detected near your property that may affect value.

How to File Your Appeal

1. Call the Sully County Equalization Department (Director of Equalization) at (605) 258-2522 to request a property tax appeal form and discuss your property's assessment with staff before filing your appeal.
2. Request that an equalization staff appraiser inspect your property to ensure the department has correct property data on file and to potentially identify any errors that could lead to an assessment adjustment.
3. Submit your written appeal to the appropriate board clerk no later than the Thursday preceding the third Monday in March, including your property's legal description and a clear explanation of why you believe the assessment is incorrect.
4. Present your case at the local board of equalization meeting on the third Monday in March, bringing evidence such as comparable sales data, photos of property conditions, or an independent appraisal to support your argument.
5. Wait for the local board's written decision which must be sent by April 1, and if you disagree with their determination, prepare to appeal to the county board of equalization.

6. If unsatisfied with the local board's decision, file a written appeal with the Sully County Auditor no later than the first Tuesday in April to have your case heard by the County Board of Equalization.

7. If the county board denies your appeal by May 6, you may file with the Office of Hearing Examiners by May 20 or appeal to circuit court within 30 days of receiving the county board's decision.

If You're Called to a Hearing

You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Bring any supporting documents — appraisals, contractor estimates, or photos of your property's condition:

> "Thank you for hearing my request. I'd like to request a review of my property's assessed value at 404 S 6th St, currently appraised at $226,000 with a taxable assessed value of $192,100 at SD's 85% assessment ratio. I believe the current assessment may not reflect my property's condition and current market conditions in this area. Comparable sales data for properties like mine is limited, which means both this assessment and any market estimate carry significant uncertainty. I've brought supporting documentation for the Board's review and respectfully request that my assessment be reconsidered."

Tips: Be polite and factual. If you have a recent appraisal, contractor estimate, or photos showing property condition issues, present them. Focus on why the assessed value may not reflect your property's actual condition and market.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
