How to File Your Appeal

1. Call the Mobile County Revenue Commissioner at (251) 574-8530 to request the specific deadline date for your valuation notice and verify if you are within the 30-day appeal window.
2. Visit https://www.mobilecountyal.gov/government/departments/mobile-county-board-of-equalization/ to download a protest form, or write a letter that includes your parcel number, correct name and mailing address, phone number, and valid email address.
3. Collect recent sales data of comparable properties, photographs of property interior and exterior showing any adverse conditions, recent appraisals, or other evidence supporting your claimed value.
4. Fill out the protest form completely with your KEY number and complete parcel identification number (xx-xx-xx-x-xxx-xxx.xxx), or include this information in your written letter with an original signature.

5. Hand deliver to 3925 Michael Blvd, Suite H, Mobile, AL 36609, mail via USPS to the same address, or email to the Board of Equalization ensuring it arrives or is postmarked within 30 days of your notice date.
6. After filing, an appraiser from the Revenue Commissioner's office will conduct a field audit of your property and review the assessment, then report findings to the Board of Equalization.
7. You will receive the Board's adjusted fair market value decision by mail; if you agree, mark approved and return it to the Board of Equalization at 3925 Michael Blvd, Suite H, Mobile, AL 36609.
8. If you plan to appeal further to Circuit Court, you must pay all property taxes by December 31 or file a supersedeas bond for double the outstanding tax amount to preserve your appeal rights.

If You're Called to a Hearing

Bring your Evidence Packet. You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Keep it simple and focus on the comparable sales:

> "Thank you for hearing my appeal. My property at 660 Baker Rd is currently appraised by the county at $286,600, resulting in a taxable assessed value of $28,660 at AL's 10% assessment ratio. However, I've gathered 10 recent sales of similar homes in the area. The 25th percentile price per square foot of these comparable properties is $80. Applied to my home's 2,705 square feet, this supports a market value of approximately $216,680. I've included addresses, sale prices, and details for each comparable in my evidence packet. I respectfully request the Board adjust my assessment to reflect actual market conditions."

Tips: Be polite and factual. Focus only on whether your property's value is correct compared to similar homes that recently sold.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
