How to File Your Appeal

1. Call the St. Louis County Assessor's Office at (314) 615-2555 to request an appeal form and ask about the informal conference process.
2. Request an informal meeting with a residential appraiser by calling (314) 615-4595 to discuss your property assessment and present supporting documentation.
3. Submit your appeal form to the St. Louis County Board of Equalization by the second Monday in July deadline at 41 South Central Avenue, Clayton, MO 63105.
4. Gather recent comparable sales data, property condition reports, and any appraisals to support your opinion of value for your appeal hearing.
5. Present your case to a Board of Equalization hearing officer with all supporting documentation, or submit materials online if you prefer not to attend in person.
6. Wait for the Board of Equalization's written decision notice, which will be mailed to you after the board reviews your case and makes a final determination.

7. If unsatisfied with the BOE decision, file an appeal with the Missouri State Tax Commission by September 30 or within 30 days of receiving the BOE decision.

If You're Called to a Hearing

Bring your Evidence Packet. You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Keep it simple and focus on the comparable sales:

> "Thank you for hearing my appeal. My property at 10634 Decker Ave is currently appraised by the county at $187,800, resulting in a taxable assessed value of $35,682 at MO's 19% assessment ratio. However, I've gathered 6 recent sales of similar homes in the area. The 25th percentile price per square foot of these comparable properties is $131. Applied to my home's 960 square feet, this supports a market value of approximately $125,871. I've included addresses, sale prices, and details for each comparable in my evidence packet. I respectfully request the Board adjust my assessment to reflect actual market conditions."

Tips: Be polite and factual. Focus only on whether your property's value is correct compared to similar homes that recently sold.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
