How to File Your Appeal

1. Call the Otoe County Assessor's Office at (402) 873-9520 to request an informal review of your property valuation and discuss your concerns with an appraiser.
2. Submit a formal protest to the County Board of Equalization during the dates specified on your valuation notice, which you should have received around January or February 2026.
3. Collect documentation showing your property is overvalued, including recent appraisals, sales data of comparable properties in your neighborhood, and photos of any property condition issues.

4. Request the property tax appeal form from the Otoe County Assessor's Office by calling (402) 873-9520 or visiting their office at 1021 Central Avenue, Room 104, Nebraska City, NE 68410.
5. File your completed appeal form with all supporting documentation to the County Board of Equalization before the deadline stated on your valuation notice.
6. Present your evidence at the County Board of Equalization hearing to demonstrate that your property is valued above market value or not equalized with similar properties.
7. Receive the Board's written decision, which will either approve your appeal with a revised valuation or deny your request with an explanation.
8. If your county appeal is denied, file an appeal with the Nebraska Tax Equalization and Review Commission as your next recourse.

If You're Called to a Hearing

Bring your Evidence Packet. You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Keep it simple and focus on the comparable sales:

> "Thank you for hearing my appeal. My property at 1599 Ash St is currently appraised by the county at $386,000. However, I've gathered 4 recent sales of similar homes in the area. The 25th percentile price per square foot of these comparable properties is $109. Applied to my home's 2,970 square feet, this supports a market value of approximately $322,713. I've included addresses, sale prices, and details for each comparable in my evidence packet. I respectfully request the Board adjust my assessment to reflect actual market conditions."

Tips: Be polite and factual. Focus only on whether your property's value is correct compared to similar homes that recently sold.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
