How to File Your Appeal

1. Call the Rio Arriba County Assessor's Office at (575) 588-7726 to request a property tax appeal form and confirm the filing deadline for 2026 protests.
2. Carefully examine your Notice of Value, which is typically mailed by April 1st, and identify any discrepancies in property valuation or classification that may warrant an appeal.
3. Collect documentation such as recent property appraisals, comparable sales data, photographs of property condition, or evidence of errors in property records to support your appeal.
4. Fill out the property tax appeal form obtained from the Assessor's Office, clearly stating your reasons for protest and the specific relief requested.
5. File your completed appeal form and supporting documentation with the Rio Arriba County Assessor at 1122 Industrial Park Road, Tierra Amarilla, NM 87575, or call (575) 588-7726 for submission instructions.
6. Participate in an informal conference with the Assessor's Office if scheduled, where you can present your evidence and potentially resolve the matter without formal proceedings.
7. Wait for the Assessor's Office to review your appeal and issue a decision, which may take several weeks depending on their workload.
8. If your appeal is denied, you may file a claim for refund in District Court within 60 days of the tax due date, but you must pay all property taxes before they become delinquent.

If You're Called to a Hearing

You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Bring any supporting documents — appraisals, contractor estimates, or photos of your property's condition:

> "Thank you for hearing my request. I'd like to request a review of my property's assessed value at 302 Esparza Ln, currently appraised at $31,760. I believe the current assessment may not reflect my property's condition and current market conditions in this area. Comparable sales data for properties like mine is limited, which means both this assessment and any market estimate carry significant uncertainty. I've brought supporting documentation for the Board's review and respectfully request that my assessment be reconsidered."

Tips: Be polite and factual. If you have a recent appraisal, contractor estimate, or photos showing property condition issues, present them. Focus on why the assessed value may not reflect your property's actual condition and market.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
