How to File Your Appeal

1. Call the Canadian County Assessor's Office at (405) 295-6331 and request a property tax appeal form for your property.
2. Collect proof that your property is overassessed, including recent appraisals, valuations of similar nearby properties, expert opinions, and documentation of any property defects or issues.
3. Fill out the property tax appeal form with detailed information about your property and attach all supporting documentation that demonstrates the property's true market value.
4. Submit your completed appeal form and all documentation to the Canadian County Assessor's Office postmarked by the deadline, which is typically within 30 days of receiving a Notice of Increase in Valuation.

5. If you prefer to submit in person or need assistance, visit the Canadian County Assessor's Office at 200 N Choctaw Avenue, El Reno, OK 73036 during business hours Monday through Friday 8:00 AM to 4:30 PM.
6. Wait for the Assessor's Office to review your appeal and notify you of their decision regarding your property's reassessment.
7. If your appeal is denied, you can file a re-appeal with the Assessor's Office or take your case to the Canadian County Equalization Board and ultimately to court if necessary.

If You're Called to a Hearing

Bring your Evidence Packet. You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Keep it simple and focus on the comparable sales:

> "Thank you for hearing my appeal. My property at 1732 Settlers Crossing Blvd is currently appraised by the county at $197,000, resulting in a taxable assessed value of $21,670 at OK's 11% assessment ratio. However, I've gathered 5 recent sales of similar homes in the area. The 25th percentile price per square foot of these comparable properties is $137. Applied to my home's 1,262 square feet, this supports a market value of approximately $172,460. I've included addresses, sale prices, and details for each comparable in my evidence packet. I respectfully request the Board adjust my assessment to reflect actual market conditions."

Tips: Be polite and factual. Focus only on whether your property's value is correct compared to similar homes that recently sold.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
