How to File Your Appeal

1. Visit https://jeffersonpva.ky.gov during the Online Conference Period from April 24, 2026 at Noon EDT to May 18, 2026 at 4pm EDT to complete your Online Conference, which is the required first step to appeal your property assessment.
2. Provide documentation supporting your opinion of value electronically with your Online Conference submission, or hand deliver or mail documentation within 24 hours to Jefferson County PVA Office, Glassworks Building, 815 W. Market St. #400, Louisville, KY 40202-2654.
3. If you need help with your Online Conference, visit a Louisville Free Public Library branch or designated assistance locations during the Online Conference Period, or call (502) 574-6380 for telephone conference options.
4. File your appeal with the County Clerk no later than one workday following the conclusion of the inspection period or by the deadline stipulated on your Online Conference results, using the conference result form provided by the PVA.

5. After filing your conference result form with the County Clerk, wait for notification of your Local Board of Assessment Appeals (LBAA) hearing date and time from the three-member panel.
6. Gather recent property appraisals, comparable sales of similar properties in your neighborhood, photos documenting property condition issues, repair estimates, and for income properties an income/expense worksheet.
7. Present your case at the scheduled Local Board of Assessment Appeals hearing, bringing all supporting documentation and evidence to support your property value claim.
8. If your LBAA appeal is denied, you may appeal to the Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals, or if no administrative appeals remain, file an appeal in court within the statutory timeframe.

If You're Called to a Hearing

Bring your Evidence Packet. You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Keep it simple and focus on the comparable sales:

> "Thank you for hearing my appeal. My property at 3742 Taylorsville Rd is currently appraised by the county at $260,820. However, I've gathered 4 recent sales of similar homes in the area. The 25th percentile price per square foot of these comparable properties is $93. Applied to my home's 1,830 square feet, this supports a market value of approximately $169,634. I've included addresses, sale prices, and details for each comparable in my evidence packet. I respectfully request the Board adjust my assessment to reflect actual market conditions."

Tips: Be polite and factual. Focus only on whether your property's value is correct compared to similar homes that recently sold.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
