How to File Your Appeal

1. Call the Sebastian County Assessor's Office at (479) 783-8948 to request a property tax appeal form and discuss your property's current valuation.
2. Collect evidence to support your appeal including recent sales of comparable properties in your area, photographs of property conditions, recent appraisals, and any documentation showing errors in property details.
3. Fill out the property tax appeal form obtained from the Assessor's Office with your current assessed value, your proposed value, and a detailed explanation of why your valuation should be reduced.
4. Submit your completed appeal form and supporting documentation to the Sebastian County Board of Equalization on or before the third Monday in August, either in person or by letter to the Board's secretary.

5. Attend your scheduled hearing before the Sebastian County Board of Equalization to present your evidence and answer questions about your property valuation appeal.
6. Wait for the Board of Equalization's written decision on your appeal, which will include information about your right to appeal to County Court if you disagree with their determination.
7. If your appeal is denied by the Board of Equalization, file an appeal with Sebastian County Court by the second Monday in October to continue challenging your property assessment.
8. If necessary, you can appeal the County Court decision to Circuit Court and ultimately to the Arkansas Supreme Court, though legal representation is recommended for these higher-level appeals.

If You're Called to a Hearing

Bring your Evidence Packet. You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Keep it simple and focus on the comparable sales:

> "Thank you for hearing my appeal. My property at 2000 Wirsing Ave is currently appraised by the county at $89,885, resulting in a taxable assessed value of $17,977 at AR's 20% assessment ratio. However, I've gathered 9 recent sales of similar homes in the area. The 25th percentile price per square foot of these comparable properties is $82. Applied to my home's 868 square feet, this supports a market value of approximately $71,185. I've included addresses, sale prices, and details for each comparable in my evidence packet. I respectfully request the Board adjust my assessment to reflect actual market conditions."

Tips: Be polite and factual. Focus only on whether your property's value is correct compared to similar homes that recently sold.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
