How to File Your Appeal

1. File your protest by May 15, 2026, or within 30 days after receiving your Notice of Appraised Value, whichever is later. You can file online at the Collin Central Appraisal District's eFile portal (with PIN from your notice), by mail to Collin Appraisal Review Board, 250 Eldorado Pkwy, McKinney, TX 75069, or drop off in person before 4:00 PM or use the 24/7 drop-box.

2. Use Form 50-132 (Notice of Protest) to identify your property, state your name as owner, and list reasons for protest. Check all applicable protest reasons including market value and unequal appraisal. If filing without the form, ensure your written protest includes property identification, owner name, and specific reasons for disagreement.

3. Compile evidence such as comparable sales data, photos of property condition, recent appraisals, or repair estimates. Prepare one complete copy for submission and organize documents in PDF, Word, Excel, or image formats (JPEG, PNG, TIFF) not exceeding 20MB total if submitting electronically.

4. Contact the Collin Central Appraisal District at (469) 742-9200 to schedule an informal meeting with district staff to discuss your property value concerns and attempt to reach a mutual agreement before the formal ARB hearing.

5. If informal resolution fails, attend your scheduled Appraisal Review Board hearing at 250 Eldorado Pkwy, McKinney, TX 75069. The ARB will notify you at least 15 days before your hearing date. Bring all evidence and be prepared to present your case to the independent panel of citizens.

6. If unsatisfied with the ARB decision, file an appeal within 60 days through district court or within 45 days through binding arbitration. For residential properties valued over $1 million, you may also appeal through the State Office of Administrative Hearings. Contact an attorney for assistance with court appeals.

If You're Called to a Hearing

Bring your Evidence Packet. You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Keep it simple and focus on the comparable sales:

> "Thank you for hearing my appeal. My property at 8120 Milo Fields Ln is currently appraised by the county at $593,304. However, I've gathered 13 recent sales of similar homes in the area. The 25th percentile price per square foot of these comparable properties is $188. Applied to my home's 2,338 square feet, this supports a market value of approximately $439,493. I've included addresses, sale prices, and details for each comparable in my evidence packet. I respectfully request the Board adjust my assessment to reflect actual market conditions."

Tips: Be polite and factual. Focus only on whether your property's value is correct compared to similar homes that recently sold.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
