How to File Your Appeal

1. Visit www.fultonassessor.org to file your property tax appeal online, which is the fastest and most convenient method for filing your appeal.
2. Review the Evidence Packet included with this filing guide — it contains comparable sales data already prepared for your appeal. Bring it to your hearing.
3. Fill out the online appeal form or download Form PT-311A, including your property information, grounds for appeal (value, taxability, uniformity, or exemption denial), and your estimate of fair market value as of January 1st.
4. Choose your appeal method: Board of Equalization (free), Arbitration (additional fees apply), or Hearing Officer, and specify whether you want to be billed at 85% or 100% of assessed value during the appeal process.

5. Submit your completed appeal online at www.fultonassessor.org, by mail to 235 Peachtree Street NE, Suite 1200, Atlanta, GA 30303, or hand-deliver to any Fulton County Board of Assessors office location.
6. If your initial review results in no change, prepare for your Board of Equalization hearing by organizing evidence and bringing four copies of all documentation to your hearing at 141 Pryor Street, Suite 5001, Atlanta, GA 30303.
7. Attend your scheduled Board of Equalization hearing in person or virtually, presenting your evidence and argument for why your property assessment should be reduced based on comparable sales and property condition.
8. If dissatisfied with the Board of Equalization decision, you have 30 days to file an appeal with Fulton County Superior Court, and may wish to consult with a property tax attorney at this stage.

If You're Called to a Hearing

Bring your Evidence Packet. You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Keep it simple and focus on the comparable sales:

> "Thank you for hearing my appeal. My property at 1020 Reunion Pl Sw is currently appraised by the county at $271,500, resulting in a taxable assessed value of $108,600 at GA's 40% assessment ratio. However, I've gathered 4 recent sales of similar homes in the area. The 25th percentile price per square foot of these comparable properties is $142. Applied to my home's 1,786 square feet, this supports a market value of approximately $253,967. I've included addresses, sale prices, and details for each comparable in my evidence packet. I respectfully request the Board adjust my assessment to reflect actual market conditions."

Tips: Be polite and factual. Focus only on whether your property's value is correct compared to similar homes that recently sold.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
