How to File Your Appeal

1. Call the Cabell County Assessor's Office at (304) 526-8687 to request a property tax appeal form and discuss appeal options, including whether to file with the Board of Equalization and Review or go directly to the West Virginia Office of Tax Appeals.
2. Contact finance director Sandy Davis at (304) 526-9800 to schedule an appointment with the Board of Equalization and Review between January 30 and February 24, 2026, from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday.
3. Prepare evidence to support your appeal including a recent certified appraisal by a licensed appraiser within the past three years, comparable property sales data, property insurance documentation, or income approach calculations for commercial properties.

4. Submit your written objections and appeal request to the Cabell County Assessor's Office at 750 5th Avenue, Suite 308, Huntington, WV 25701 before the February 20, 2026 deadline to preserve your appeal rights.
5. Appear at your scheduled hearing in room 300 at the Cabell County Courthouse at 9 a.m. to present your evidence and testimony to the Board of Equalization and Review, prepared to prove by clear and convincing evidence that the assessor's value is incorrect.
6. Agree to pay first and second installment property taxes as they come due while your appeal is pending, as required by West Virginia law for all appeals filed with the Board of Equalization and Review.

If You're Called to a Hearing

Bring your Evidence Packet. You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Keep it simple and focus on the comparable sales:

> "Thank you for hearing my appeal. My property at 2000 N Englewood Rd is currently appraised by the county at $245,200, resulting in a taxable assessed value of $147,120 at WV's 60% assessment ratio. However, I've gathered 3 recent sales of similar homes in the area. The 25th percentile price per square foot of these comparable properties is $99. Applied to my home's 2,400 square feet, this supports a market value of approximately $236,647. I've included addresses, sale prices, and details for each comparable in my evidence packet. I respectfully request the Board adjust my assessment to reflect actual market conditions."

Tips: Be polite and factual. Focus only on whether your property's value is correct compared to similar homes that recently sold.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
