How to File Your Appeal

1. Call the Town of Orange Assessor's Office at (802) 479-2673 to discuss your property assessment concerns and request an informal review before filing a formal appeal.
2. If informal discussions don't resolve your concerns, file a grievance with the Town of Orange listers by submitting a written letter or grievance application to the Assessor's Office stating your reasons for disagreement with the assessment.
3. Attend the scheduled lister grievance hearing to present evidence supporting your claim that the property is over-assessed, including comparable sales, appraisals, or property condition documentation.
4. Within 14 days of receiving the listers' decision, file a written appeal with the Town Clerk at the Orange Town Office stating the grounds for your appeal to the Board of Civil Authority.
5. Gather evidence including comparable property sales, independent appraisals, photographs of property damage, and any documentation that shows your property's assessed value exceeds its fair market value.
6. Attend the Board of Civil Authority hearing scheduled by the Town Clerk and allow the required property inspection by at least three BCA members who will evaluate your property.
7. The Board of Civil Authority will issue a written decision within 15 days of the property inspection report, which may sustain, increase, or decrease your property's assessed value.
8. If unsatisfied with the BCA decision, file an appeal within 30 days to either the Vermont Director of Property Valuation and Review for a $70 fee or to the Superior Court.

If You're Called to a Hearing

Bring your Evidence Packet. You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Keep it simple and focus on the comparable sales:

> "Thank you for hearing my appeal. My property at 56 Chelsea Rd is currently appraised by the county at $292,000. However, I've gathered 17 recent sales of similar homes in the area. The 25th percentile price per square foot of these comparable properties is $152. Applied to my home's 1,356 square feet, this supports a market value of approximately $205,738. I've included addresses, sale prices, and details for each comparable in my evidence packet. I respectfully request the Board adjust my assessment to reflect actual market conditions."

Tips: Be polite and factual. Focus only on whether your property's value is correct compared to similar homes that recently sold.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
