How to File Your Appeal

1. Call the Municipality of Anchorage Property Appraisal Division at (907) 343-6500 to discuss your assessment and potentially avoid a formal appeal if adjustments can be made before the deadline.
2. Submit your appeal to the Property Appraisal Division within 30 days from the date the assessment notice (yellow card) was mailed, either in person at 632 W. 6th Avenue, Suite 300, Anchorage, AK 99501 or by mail.
3. Include the required filing deposit with your appeal form, which will be refunded if the appeal is resolved prior to the hearing or if you provide required data and appear at the hearing.
4. Provide all evidence supporting your appeal within 45 days from the date the assessment notice was mailed (30 days to file plus 15 days for evidence), including comparable sales, sale price of your property, and building condition information.
5. If you need assistance with address corrections on your property records, contact the Property Appraisal Division at (907) 343-6770.

6. Appear before the Board of Equalization on your scheduled hearing date, where you will be sworn in and give oral testimony to support your appeal.
7. If the Board of Equalization denies your appeal, you may file an appeal with the Superior Court within 30 days of receiving the Board's decision.

If You're Called to a Hearing

Bring your Evidence Packet. You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Keep it simple and focus on the comparable sales:

> "Thank you for hearing my appeal. My property at 3810 Iowa Dr is currently appraised by the county at $246,100. However, I've gathered 12 recent sales of similar homes in the area. The 25th percentile price per square foot of these comparable properties is $227. Applied to my home's 834 square feet, this supports a market value of approximately $188,932. I've included addresses, sale prices, and details for each comparable in my evidence packet. I respectfully request the Board adjust my assessment to reflect actual market conditions."

Tips: Be polite and factual. Focus only on whether your property's value is correct compared to similar homes that recently sold.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
