How to File Your Appeal

1. Call the Mobile County Revenue Commissioner at (251) 574-8530 to request a valuation notice for your property if you haven't received one.
2. File a written protest with the Mobile County Board of Equalization within 30 days of the notice date printed on your valuation letter, not the date you received it.
3. Complete a separate protest form for each parcel, including the KEY number, complete parcel identification number (xx-xx-xx-x-xxx-xxx.xxx), your correct name and mailing address, a valid telephone number and usable email address.
4. Include supporting documentation such as recent appraisals, evidence of purchase price, photos showing property condition, comparable sales in your area, or other evidence supporting your valuation claim.

5. Hand deliver, mail, or email your appeal to Mobile County Board of Equalization at 3925 Michael Blvd, Suite H, Mobile, AL 36609, ensuring it is postmarked within 30 days of the notice date.
6. An appraiser from the Revenue Commissioner's office will conduct a field audit of your property and review the assessment for any mistakes, then report findings to the Board.
7. You will receive notice of the adjusted fair market value by mail, and if you agree with the adjustment, mark approved and return to the Board of Equalization.
8. If you plan to further appeal to Circuit Court, ensure all property taxes are paid by December 31 or file a supersedeas bond for double the outstanding tax amount to preserve appeal rights.

If You're Called to a Hearing

Bring your Evidence Packet. You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Keep it simple and focus on the comparable sales:

> "Thank you for hearing my appeal. My property at 660 Baker Rd is currently appraised by the county at $286,600, resulting in a taxable assessed value of $28,660 at AL's 10% assessment ratio. However, I've gathered 9 recent sales of similar homes in the area. The 25th percentile price per square foot of these comparable properties is $80. Applied to my home's 2,705 square feet, this supports a market value of approximately $216,680. I've included addresses, sale prices, and details for each comparable in my evidence packet. I respectfully request the Board adjust my assessment to reflect actual market conditions."

Tips: Be polite and factual. Focus only on whether your property's value is correct compared to similar homes that recently sold.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
