How to File Your Appeal

1. Call the Hamilton County Assessor of Property at (423) 209-7300 to request an appeal form. The deadline for the 2026 County Board appeal process will be announced early next year.
2. Request an informal review with the assessor's office to share information about your property that may affect its value, such as sales prices of similar properties. You will be notified by mail regarding the results of your informal review.
3. In accordance with T.C.A. § 67-5-1407, property owners must provide evidence to support their complaint. Examples include sales prices of similar properties in the immediate area within the last three years. Appeals may be rejected if evidence is not provided.
4. You must submit a written appeal application; deadlines are strict, so act quickly. The window for appeal is usually short, often 30 days from the date assessment notices are mailed. File your protest in writing with the Hamilton County Board of Equalization before the published deadline, usually falling in mid-June.

5. At your scheduled hearing, present your case to the Board. Bring all supporting documentation and be prepared for questions from board members. This setting allows you to clearly show why your property's assessed value should be adjusted.

6. The Hamilton County Board of Equalization is made up of a total of five members. Three are appointed by Hamilton County and 2 are appointed by the City of Chattanooga. The Board will review your evidence and issue a decision on your appeal.

7. Should a taxpayer disagree with a decision of a county board of equalization, the taxpayer may appeal to the State Board of Equalization. A party may petition the Board to review a decision of an administrative judge. Parties have thirty (30) days from the date the Initial Decision & Order was sent to file a written petition requesting a review by the Board.

If You're Called to a Hearing

Bring your Evidence Packet. You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Keep it simple and focus on the comparable sales:

> "Thank you for hearing my appeal. My property at 3206 Wood Ave is currently appraised by the county at $189,400, resulting in a taxable assessed value of $47,350 at TN's 25% assessment ratio. However, I've gathered 4 recent sales of similar homes in the area. The 25th percentile price per square foot of these comparable properties is $105. Applied to my home's 1,096 square feet, this supports a market value of approximately $114,564. I've included addresses, sale prices, and details for each comparable in my evidence packet. I respectfully request the Board adjust my assessment to reflect actual market conditions."

Tips: Be polite and factual. Focus only on whether your property's value is correct compared to similar homes that recently sold.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
