APPEAL NOT RECOMMENDED

Your county has appraised your property at $265,719. In WY, residential properties are assessed at 9.5% of appraised value for tax purposes, resulting in a taxable assessed value of $17,085. Your annual property tax of $1,363.55 reflects an effective tax rate of 0.51%. Without comparable sales data available for your specific property, we cannot determine whether the county's valuation is above or below market value. We do not see sufficient evidence to support a formal appeal at this time. We recommend reviewing your annual assessment notice when it arrives and comparing it to recent sales of similar homes in your area. Note: 2 environmental factors were detected near your property that may affect value.

How to File Your Appeal

1. Visit the Natrona County Assessor's Office in person at 200 N. Center Room 140, Casper, WY 82601 or call (307) 235-9444 to request a review of your property assessment.
2. During your initial contact, review your Property Profile with staff to check that all property characteristics including square footage, construction details, finished area, and outbuildings are accurately recorded.
3. If there is significant damage to your building that affects its value, disclose this information to the assessor during your review meeting to ensure it is considered in your assessment.
4. Collect relevant documentation such as recent appraisals, sales data for similar properties in your area, or evidence of property damage to support your appeal case.
5. Submit a written notice of appeal to the Natrona County Board of Equalization within 30 days of the date printed on your assessment notice if you disagree with the valuation after the initial review.

6. Appear before the Natrona County Board of Equalization at your scheduled hearing to present your case and supporting evidence for why your property assessment should be reduced.
7. If you disagree with the County Board's decision, file an appeal with the Wyoming State Board of Equalization as your next step in the appeals process.

If You're Called to a Hearing

Bring your Evidence Packet. You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Keep it simple and focus on the comparable sales:

> "Thank you for hearing my appeal. My property at 2340 Sunset Blvd is currently appraised by the county at $265,719, resulting in a taxable assessed value of $25,243 at WY's 10% assessment ratio. However, I've gathered 0 recent sales of similar homes in the area. The 25th percentile price per square foot of these comparable properties is $0. Applied to my home's 1,792 square feet, this supports a market value of approximately $0. I've included addresses, sale prices, and details for each comparable in my evidence packet. I respectfully request the Board adjust my assessment to reflect actual market conditions."

Tips: Be polite and factual. Focus only on whether your property's value is correct compared to similar homes that recently sold.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
