How to File Your Appeal

1. Call the Lancaster County Assessor's Office at (402) 441-7463 to request your property's current valuation notice and confirm this year's appeal deadline.
2. Submit your property valuation protest to the Lancaster County Clerk's Office between June 1 and June 30, 2026, either online, in person, or by mail. If June 30 falls on a weekend, the deadline extends to the next business day.
3. File your protest online at the Lancaster County website for faster processing and the ability to select your hearing date, or obtain a paper form from the County Clerk's Office at 555 S. 10th St, Room 110, Lincoln, NE 68508.
4. Gather evidence supporting your property value claim, including recent appraisals, comparable property sales in your neighborhood, photographs of property conditions, or expert opinions about your property's value.
5. Participate in your scheduled referee hearing in June or July 2026, which will typically be conducted by phone unless you request an in-person hearing. In-person hearings are held the week of July 22 at Lincoln Firefighters Reception Hall, 241 Victory Lane, Lincoln, NE 68528.
6. Check the County Clerk's website after August 4, 2026, using your protest number and Parcel ID to view the referee's value recommendation, or call the County Clerk's office at (402) 441-8724 to obtain your results.

7. If you disagree with the County Board's decision, file an appeal with the Nebraska Tax Equalization and Review Commission by October 15, 2026, including Form 422 and a $25 filing fee for residential properties.

If You're Called to a Hearing

Bring your Evidence Packet. You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Keep it simple and focus on the comparable sales:

> "Thank you for hearing my appeal. My property at 4821 S 47th St is currently appraised by the county at $270,300. However, I've gathered 3 recent sales of similar homes in the area. The 25th percentile price per square foot of these comparable properties is $213. Applied to my home's 1,224 square feet, this supports a market value of approximately $260,408. I've included addresses, sale prices, and details for each comparable in my evidence packet. I respectfully request the Board adjust my assessment to reflect actual market conditions."

Tips: Be polite and factual. Focus only on whether your property's value is correct compared to similar homes that recently sold.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
