How to File Your Appeal

1. Call the Tulsa County Assessor's Office at (918) 596-5100 to request the informal appeal form (OTC Form 974) and confirm the deadline for filing your property tax appeal.
2. Check your Notice of Increase in Valuation of Real Property for the mailing date, as you have 30 calendar days from that date to file your appeal with the county assessor.
3. Fill out the informal appeal form (OTC Form 974) with pertinent facts about your property value in ordinary and concise language, available from the assessor's office or Oklahoma Tax Commission website.
4. File your completed OTC Form 974 with the Tulsa County Assessor's Office at 218 W. 6th St., 5th Floor, Tulsa, OK 74119 within 30 days of your valuation notice date.

5. Participate in your scheduled informal protest hearing either by phone or in person at the Assessor's office to present evidence supporting your property value appeal.
6. The assessor will issue a written decision within 7 calendar days of your informal hearing and mail it to you by regular or electronic mail.
7. If you disagree with the assessor's decision, file Form 976 (Formal Appeal) with the County Board of Equalization within 15 calendar days of the assessor's decision mailing date.
8. If the County Board of Equalization denies your appeal, you may appeal to the county district court within 30 days of the board's decision.

If You're Called to a Hearing

Bring your Evidence Packet. You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Keep it simple and focus on the comparable sales:

> "Thank you for hearing my appeal. My property at 8257 N 128th E Ave is currently appraised by the county at $244,200, resulting in a taxable assessed value of $26,862 at OK's 11% assessment ratio. However, I've gathered 3 recent sales of similar homes in the area. The 25th percentile price per square foot of these comparable properties is $102. Applied to my home's 1,784 square feet, this supports a market value of approximately $181,183. I've included addresses, sale prices, and details for each comparable in my evidence packet. I respectfully request the Board adjust my assessment to reflect actual market conditions."

Tips: Be polite and factual. Focus only on whether your property's value is correct compared to similar homes that recently sold.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
