How to File Your Appeal

1. Contact the Office of Property Assessment at (215) 686-9200 to request a First Level Review form if you did not receive one with your assessment notice.
2. File an appeal with the Board of Revision of Taxes by mailing to The Curtis Center, 601 Walnut Street, Suite 325 East, Philadelphia, PA 19106, or by emailing the PDF form to appealinquiry@phila.gov.
3. Collect evidence such as recent comparable property sales, photographs of your property showing condition issues, or a professional appraisal showing your property's market value is lower than assessed.
4. Alternatively, submit your appeal application in person at the BRT office Monday through Friday between 8:30 A.M. and 4:30 P.M. at The Curtis Center, 601 Walnut Street, Suite 325 East.
5. The Board of Revision of Taxes will mail you a hearing notice approximately 45 to 90 days in advance with the date, time, and location of your appeal hearing.

6. Attend your scheduled hearing either in person or via Zoom link provided in your hearing notice to present your evidence and argue why your assessment should be reduced.
7. The BRT will mail their decision after the hearing, and if successful, your property assessment will be adjusted and you will receive a new tax bill reflecting the lower amount.

If You're Called to a Hearing

Bring your Evidence Packet. You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Keep it simple and focus on the comparable sales:

> "Thank you for hearing my appeal. My property at 1906 Plymouth St is currently appraised by the county at $182,800. However, I've gathered 3 recent sales of similar homes in the area. The 25th percentile price per square foot of these comparable properties is $82. Applied to my home's 1,194 square feet, this supports a market value of approximately $97,768. I've included addresses, sale prices, and details for each comparable in my evidence packet. I respectfully request the Board adjust my assessment to reflect actual market conditions."

Tips: Be polite and factual. Focus only on whether your property's value is correct compared to similar homes that recently sold.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
