How to File Your Appeal

1. Call the Newport City Assessor's Office at (401) 845-5365 to request a property tax appeal form and confirm the filing deadline for 2026 appeals.
2. Locate your 2026 property assessment notice which should have been mailed in early 2026, and compare your assessed value to similar properties in your neighborhood.
3. Collect evidence of recent sales of similar properties in your area that sold for less than your assessed value, focusing on sales from 2025.
4. Fill out the property tax appeal form completely, including your property information, grounds for appeal, and your opinion of fair market value with supporting documentation.
5. File your completed appeal application with all supporting documents at the Newport City Assessor's Office between August 5 and November 3, 2026.
6. The assessor has 45 days to review your appeal and notify you of their decision, during which they may request additional information or an inspection.
7. If the assessor denies your appeal or doesn't respond within 45 days, file an appeal with the local tax board of review within 30 days of the assessor's decision or 90 days if no decision.

If You're Called to a Hearing

Bring your Evidence Packet. You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Keep it simple and focus on the comparable sales:

> "Thank you for hearing my appeal. My property at 22 Pachet Brook Rd is currently appraised by the county at $920,000. However, I've gathered 3 recent sales of similar homes in the area. The 25th percentile price per square foot of these comparable properties is $189. Applied to my home's 4,407 square feet, this supports a market value of approximately $832,594. I've included addresses, sale prices, and details for each comparable in my evidence packet. I respectfully request the Board adjust my assessment to reflect actual market conditions."

Tips: Be polite and factual. Focus only on whether your property's value is correct compared to similar homes that recently sold.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
