How to File Your Appeal

1. Visit the OneBerkeley Portal at Contact the Berkeley County Assessor's Office at (843) 719-4061 for current filing information and forms to file your informal appeal request form online. Create an account if you don't already have one and attach supporting documentation such as comparable sales or appraisals.
2. A certified appraiser will conduct an informal review of your timely-filed appeal and you may be contacted by the assessor's office to discuss your issues either by telephone or scheduled conference.
3. The assessor will mail you a notice of decision regarding your informal appeal, which will either adjust your property value or maintain the current assessment.
4. If you disagree with the assessor's decision, file a written protest with the County Board of Assessment Appeals within 30 days of the notice of decision date.

5. At least 15 days before your Board hearing, exchange lists of documents, witnesses and evidence with the assessor and provide copies to the County Board including appraisals and property sales documentation.

6. Present your case at the County Board of Assessment Appeals hearing where at least three board members will review your evidence and the assessor's response to determine if an adjustment is warranted.

7. The Board will mail a written decision within 15 days after your hearing date explaining whether they upheld or adjusted your property value assessment.

If You're Called to a Hearing

Bring your Evidence Packet. You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Keep it simple and focus on the comparable sales:

> "Thank you for hearing my appeal. My property at 119 Mossy Oaks Ave is currently appraised by the county at $282,000, resulting in a taxable assessed value of $11,280 at SC's 4% assessment ratio. However, I've gathered 3 recent sales of similar homes in the area. The 25th percentile price per square foot of these comparable properties is $160. Applied to my home's 1,382 square feet, this supports a market value of approximately $221,310. I've included addresses, sale prices, and details for each comparable in my evidence packet. I respectfully request the Board adjust my assessment to reflect actual market conditions."

Tips: Be polite and factual. Focus only on whether your property's value is correct compared to similar homes that recently sold.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
